PIONEERS OF KINGSTON

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Morton

Couple Married For Sixty Years Fete Anniversary

HANFORD (Kings Co.), May 31. —Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Morton of Stockton, pioneer residents of the early day community of Kingston, near Laton, celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary with a barbecue at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Carrie Frame, on whose birthday the anniversary affair was held.

Mrs. Frame's husband, William Frame, cooked and served barbecued steaks at his outdoor fireplace.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton were served ice cream from dessert dishes given them on their wedding day sixty years ago, Mrs. Morton announcing the entire set of six still is intact.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton run their own household and Mrs. Morton does all the cooking and housework. Until four years ago, Mr. Morton did the garden work.

Mrs. Morton, the eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Perry C. Phillips, was born and married at the old homestead, south of Laton, now owned by her brother, Robert Phillips. Her husband was brought to California by his parents from Kentucky when he was a baby.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton lived in Seattle, Wash., Hanford and San Luis Obispo before moving to Stockton to be near their daughter, Mrs. Frame.

The couple also have a son, William P. Morton, and a grandson, Chester Morton.

Guests were William P. Morton, and Miss Ada Phillips of Hanford, the latter a sister of Mrs. Morton; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Phillips, Mrs. Lillian Cole and daughter, Betty Lou Cole, all of Laton; Mr. and Mrs. Joe McClary and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Morton and son, Richard William Morton II of Oakland.

Singles Titles

Girls' Singles

In the junior girls' singles Roberta Long of Lemoore is one of the finalists. She defeated Ruth Williams of Visalia, 6-2, 6-4, in a third round match yesterday afternoon. Ann Pedroncelli of Fresno High School and Wilmiena Douma of Hanford are playing today to determine who will meet Miss Long.

Ted Lyons made monkeys out of the Indians in the first game, yielding only five hits, and Thornton Lee completed the Tribe's subjugation with a six hitter in the nightcap. Joe Kohel was the hitting hero, clubbing a three run homer in the opener and a two run circuit blow in the nightcap. The double win trimmed the Indians lead over the White Sox to two games.

Dodgers Win Two
